

Four Seasons Hotel George V, Paris awarded « Best Hotel Worldwide for Service » by the Condé Nast Traveller Reader's Travel Awards 2014.

September 2014 - Four Seasons Hotel George V, Paris was nominated « Best Hotel Worldwide for Service» by Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Travel Awards 2014 – a new distinction was created this year and rewarded high scores by the Four Seasons in this category. Indeed, Four Seasons has won a total of 22 titles in this 2014 edition, including 7 hotels ranked in the Top 100. Four Seasons Hotel George V Paris was also voted Best Business Hotel in France.

Managed for fifteen years by the Four Seasons, this legendary establishment is considered the best of Paris, as well as one of the best in the world. Over the years, the hotel has continued to earn rewards including recently, « Best Hotel in Europe for Service» by the Condé Nast Traveller Gold List 2012 and «Best Hotel Spa in Europe » in 2014 edition of Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards.

Isadore Sharp, founder and chairman of Four Seasons Hotels, has explained on this distinction. "We are deeply touched to receive this level of recognition from our customers and Condé Nast Traveller readers. Today, all hotel companies talk about service, but this award is proof that excellent service starts first with the dedication and passion of employees. At Four Seasons, our employees have always been and continue to be, what distinguishes us in the market."

The commitment, enthusiasm and longevity of the hotel's teams continue to support the reputation of the institution as a benchmark for service. Among the hotel's many talents includes: Executive Chef Christian Le Squer the two-star Michelin restaurant Le Cinq; Artistic Director Jeff Leatham that surpasses the customer experience with 14,000 flowers imported weekly from Amsterdam; and Eric Beaumard, director of the gourmet restaurant, known as one of the best sommeliers in the world.