Ultratravel Readers votes Four Seasons Hotel George V Paris as « Best Hotel in Europe » for the fourth consecutive year.

May 2014 – the British magazine ULTRATRAVEL – a quarterly supplement to The Daily Telegraph – has just voted the Four Seasons Hotel George V « Best Hotel in Europe », for the 4th consecutive year, and Four Seasons, « Best Luxury Chain ».

The prestigious ranking was unveiled during a ceremony in London on May 20 where an audience of key players in the travel industry came to congratulate the lucky winners. Established annually based on the votes of readers, the Ultratravel serves as a reference in the world of hospitality and tourism.

Christian Clerc, Senior Vice Président of Four Seasons Europe/Middle East/Africa welcomes this double consecration and says: « We are honored to be receiving this distinction which we are adding to the list of awards for the George V including Gallivanter's Guide and most recently, the Russian Conde Nast Traveller. We intend to maintain this prestigious first place in the international rankings by continuing to offer our customers the best of Paris through a unique quality service and exclusive experiences at the George V Paris. »
